

Walt Kean joins A5 Chattanooga with an impressive resume working with the social media of local and national nonprofits (YCAP, TheHopeLine, Berean School and Baylor School). Walt has been a part of the volleyball program as a coach at the Baylor School in Chattanooga since 2015— where he also serves as Security Liaison to Athletics at Baylor.

In addition to his work with Baylor and Social Media, Walt has also been involved with TSSAA (Tennessee Secondary School Athletic Association) since 2000 as a basketball official, working two State Finals in 2007 & 2014, as the Middle School Coordinator beginning in 2006, and has been serving as the Supervisor & Assigner for the Chattanooga area since 2013. Since stepping off the basketball court, Walt has now stepped on the Volleyball stand as an Official of volleyball since 2013.

As a proud dad, Walt has traveled the game of volleyball with his daughter Rheagan and wife Becky. Rheagan is a freshman at Bryan College playing as a defensive specialist and majoring in Education. As a father/daughter team, Walt and Rheagan are coaching their first year together with A5 Chattanooga beginning in 2017.
