

Mary Marcum has been coaching volleyball since 2011. Since beginning her coaching career, she has coached virtually every age and level, ranging from 10's up to college.

Mary spent the 2018 season as the Volunteer Assistant for Women's Volleyball at King University in Bristol, TN. While at King, she specialized in defensive systems, serve receive and individual setting techniques.

In 2017, Mary helped lead North Oldham High School in Goshen, KY to a 5th place finish in the State tournament. She was the JV head coach, varsity assistant coach and program defensive specialist coordinator. 2016 season saw Mary as the head coach for St. Aloysius in Louisville, KY where her 8th grade team took 3rd in the City tournament.

Throughout Mary's coaching career, she has coached at the Junior Olympic level for OVA (now OTVA) in Orlando, Fl., KIVA and Union both in Louisville, KY and KVC in Kingsport, TN. She has coached ages ranging from 10U-17U at this level. At KVC, she served as the Youth program Master Trainer.

Mary is relocating to Chattanooga with her husband Justin, and their two dogs Panda and Chloe. She is incredibly excited to be joining the A5 family and looking forward to growing the sport in the area.
